SOUPS

soaps "Cerealine Flakes" is infinitely better than Macaroni, Vermicelli, Italian Paste, Sago, or Barley. It is more convenient also. It needs to be placed only in the tureen and have the hot soup poured over it before serving. The ease with which "Cerealine Flakes" may be prepared in many forms surprises those who use it.

THE "Cerealine Cook-Book" containing over two hundred carefully prepared recipes, and a pamphlet on "Cerealine Food," illustrated with twelve original engravings of "Mia's Fasting," will be sent to any one who will mention where this advertisement was seen, and enclose a two-cent stamp for postage to the Cerealine Mfg. Co., Columbus, Indiana.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

GRAND—"My Partner," Friday, April 1. BLACK—"The Marine," Saturday, April 2.

THIS MORNING'S FIRE.

George Tate's House Slightly Damaged.

At 10:25 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire from box 33, corner of Center and Pleasant streets, called the Centrals and Westerns to a story and a half frame dwelling. No. 191 south Center street. The building is owned by Mr. Ross Mitchell and occupied by George Tate, a tinner in the employ of William McCully, the Main street hardware dealer. Mrs. Tate had hung some clothing on a line stretched across the kitchen, and while she was out of the room the clothing had caught fire from the kitchen stove, in which there was a very hot fire. The clothes burned rapidly and soon ignited the wood work near the stove. When the fire was discovered the room was filled with smoke which was pouring from the two doors in dense volumes. A gentleman who happened to be passing, rushed into the house and found a cradle containing two babies in the very room where the fire was. He carried the little ones into the open air, undoubtedly saving their lives, for had they remained a minute longer in that dense smoke they would certainly have been suffocated. Four or five buckets of water used judiciously, quenched the flames, the fire department not being required to throw any water. The loss on the building and clothing will not exceed $50. Mrs. Tate lost a red bird, a mocking bird and two canaries, all being suffocated by the smoke.

Good as Life Insurance.

This morning the widow of Conductor George W. Cogswell was paid the sum of $1,250 by Mr. H. L. Lockfield, as agent for the Conductors' Association, of which Mr. Cogswell was a member.

All Republicans should attend the ward meetings tomorrow evening.

A POSER!

Why is it that people will insist upon paying a thousand prices for a suit of clothing when for $25 you can purchase at 39 East Main street a custom-made Scotch Cheviot that the owner can well be proud of?

DON'T BE HUMBUGGED ANY LONGER.

Remember we buy direct from the mills at rock-bottom prices. These goods do not contain a fiber of cotton wool or shoddy. They are goods that can be implicitly relied upon in every particular, and for $25 we guarantee a fit that isn't equalled in Springfield.

ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Jacob Gerstenmeyer Taken to Massillon on a Charge of Battery.

Constable Andrew Dangleisen, of Massillon, O., arrived here yesterday afternoon with a warrant for the arrest of one Jacob Gerstenmeyer, on the charge of battery. Six months ago Gerstenmeyer was a resident of Massillon, and for some time prior to his removal to this city had assiduously courted a young German girl, Elmore Weibel. He left Massillon rather suddenly and came to Springfield, and it was some time after his arrival here before his friends learned where he was.

On Monday the Weibel girl appeared before a justice of the peace and swore out a warrant for Gerstenmeyer's arrest, charging him with the paternity of her unborn child. The girl claims that Gerstenmeyer seduced her under a promise of marriage. This morning it was learned that the fellow was working in the East street shoe shop, and he was placed under arrest by Officer Wilson. He at first denied the charge, but when confronted by Constable Dangleisen he wilted and admitted that he was guilty. This afternoon the constable took him to Massillon.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. Dan Minahan went to Lima today. Business in police circles is remarkably quiet.

Court will adjourn for the term next Monday.

John Thompson was run in yesterday for drunkenness.

Today the members of the police force received their pay.

The bunch of Keys company went to Dayton this morning.

Marshal Hamilton, of Yellow Springs, was in town this morning.

S. A. Dakin, Esq., of Yellow Springs, was in town today on legal business.

The funeral of Agent Sam Dodd's father occurred this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A fellow giving his name as Ed. Wren was station-housed last evening for drunkenness.

J. A. Baker's bond as receiver in the Driscoll case is $4,000, and not $40,000 as printed Tuesday.

Vincent Rigio, the harpist, went to Dayton this afternoon. He plays for a swell hop there tonight.

Mr. J. Warren Well, of Columbus, a member of the London Clothing company, is in the city today.

Mr. Richard Pritchard, of St. Marys, O., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Smith, of south Center street.

At 2:30 o'clock the Christian church tonight at 2:30 o'clock preparatory to holy communion next Sunday. All invited.

The Worthington Chautauque circle will meet on Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. John Ford, No. 74 south Race street.

A brilliant party is on the tapis for tomorrow evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Whiteley will entertain at their residence on East High street.

Governor Thomas yesterday appointed Mr. John H. Foraker, of this city, a member of the Ohio Centennial Commission. The appointment is an excellent one.

Mrs. Julia Willis Cummings and Miss Florence Baker, formerly of this city, now of Denver, Colorado, are home on a brief visit. Miss Baker is greatly improved in health.

NEARING THE END.

The Final Work of the Campaign Mapped Out at the Committee Meeting Last Night.

A rousing meeting of the Clark county republican central committee was held in the committee rooms in the Buckingham building last Tuesday evening, and the final work of the campaign was entered into with significant enthusiasm. Much of the work accomplished last night cannot be discussed in print for good reasons, but the feeling was alive, active and united. Meetings in all the wards for final organization was ordered for tomorrow (Thursday) evening, and a number of calls will be found elsewhere. A full attendance of republicans is desired at these final meetings, which will be held at the several caucusing places of the wards.

Messrs. James H. Rabbits and Wm. M. Rickett were appointed a committee on tickets. This committee had a consultation this morning with the non-partisans, with a view of having both the township and city tickets printed on one ballot. The prohibitions were also seen and readily gave their consent to the project, which was for the sole purpose of facilitating the counting of the ballots and of dispensing with separate tally-sheets. The non-partisans, however, refused point-blank to consent to the arrangement, and so there will be two separate ballot-books and tickets as of old.

Sixth Ward Republicans.

There will be a meeting of the Sixth ward republicans at the mayor's office on Thursday evening, March 31st, at 8 o'clock. The committee want a full attendance. Come, and tell your neighbor to come.

JOEL J. HOTCHKISS, J. C. HOLLOMAN, Central Committee.

Attention, Fifth Ward Republicans.

All republican voters are earnestly requested to meet at Arbogast's carpenter shop, on Diest street near Yellow Springs, Thursday, March 31, at 7:30 p. m. A large attendance from each precinct is much desired, as matters of great importance will come before the meeting for discussion, on the perfecting of an election organization.

Seventh Ward Republicans.

Republicans of the Seventh ward will meet at the Southern engine house on Clinton street tomorrow evening, to wind up the campaign with a big hurrah. Let everybody turn out.

W. C. DOWNEY.

Committeeman, Precinct A. JAMES E. SULLIVAN, Committee-man, Precinct B.

The democratic and non-partisan aggregation of the Fourth ward caucused last night at the voting place on Mount street, with an attendance of sixty or seventy.

Jake Korn was chairman, as a matter of course, and Frank Moran acted as secretary. Mr. Will S. Thomas was nominated for council in spite of the fact of his "repeated declinations," and that he was present.

Mr. C. C. Haines, of Dayton, traveling passenger agent of the Pan Handle road, is acting as ticket agent at the Springfield station today for the regular agent, Mr. Sam Dodd, who is in Xenia attending the funeral of his father.

It probably surprised Professor Blumenschein yesterday, when he read the REPUBLIC's account of the Orphan concert, that he felt the lack of "republishers" on the part of the chorus. The word was written "responsiveness."

Dr. L. E. Russell has received from a Chicago firm copies of a steel engraving of himself which are to be placed in the bound proceedings of the National Eclectic Medical Association, of which he is the president. The likeness is excellent.

Springfield people are to have something new offered in the way of a church entertainment. The young ladies of High street M. E. church are going to give an orange social next Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gunn, which promises to be a very merry affair.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock Charles Elmer, the three-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rickett, who reside near the Little Miami railroad, in the southwestern part of the city, died of lung fever. The funeral occurred this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the burial being in Fernside.

THE STUDIOUS MAN.

Out through the gates of Ispahan One morning rode a studious man. "Oh, whither bound? a traveler cried. Who rested by a fountain side. "I go to seek," replied the sage, "The greatest wonder of the age." "Then from your saddle now descend And call your journey at an end. For here within this sack I hold The greatest wonder bought or sold." And stooping down, the speaker drew For back to Ispahan he rode.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
